Edn. Deptt.

With reference to the above Resolution of the CRB, the following note is subd. as regards the Education Department:—

I. Re. Qualifications.

× J

(1) G. O. No. E. 971-1020 | edn 7-25-1 of 31.8.1925 prescribes a pass in the S. S. L. C. exam. as the minimum qualifications for the post of teacher in Middle Schools including Incomplete Middle Schools and of clerical appointments in certain educational Institutions and offices. Under the Revised Rules of Recruitment, S.R. Le in the prescribed minimum educational qualification for all these appointments and hence the order of 31.8.1925 as a special provision seems to have been superseded by the Revised Rules. It would be unnecessary now in view of the New Rules to need not stand any more. × D

(2) G.O. No. 616-17/Edn 13.4.32-1 of 19.7.1932 prescribes minimum qualifications for the appointments of Agricultural Instructors and Fieldmen and Sericultural Instructors in the Education Department. Since qualifications have not been prescribed for such appointments in the Revised Rules, it is for orders, if the above order of 19.7.1932 may remain unaltered by the Revised Rules. These being the native tech. appts. this G.O. prescribe the qual^ns may stand unaltered. L

(3) G.O. No. E. 4704-5/Edn-193-26-2 of 28.2.1927 prescribes the minimum qualifications for the posts of Pandits and Munshis in the High, Normal and Middle Schools. Since Revised Rules do not prescribe minimum qualifications for these appointments it is for orders, if the G.O. of 28.2.1927 may remain unaltered under the Revised Rules of Recruitment. × R

4) G.O. No. 561-915 Edn. 13.6-26-6 dt. 15.6.1927 prescribes a pass in the U.S. examn. as an alternative to a pass in the S.S.L.C. examn. for appointments in the Educational Institutions and offices. Since Note (1) of the Rule 5 of the Revised Rules lays down the same condition the above order of 15.6.1927 does not seem to exist any further and seems to have been superseded by the Revised Rule.

Yes. There is no need for this G.O. as a separate special provision as this is embodied in the New Rules

II Re. preference to Trained Men

(1) G.O. No. 642-43 Edn. 76-25-32 dt. 6.7.1926

(2) G.O. No. D 7331-32 Edn. 690-28-1 dt. 19.11.1929

(3) G.O. No. 9411-12 Edn. 13-36-28-1 dt. 4.6.1929

These orders lay down a rule that trained men will invariably have preference over those who are untrained for appointments of teachers in High and Primary Schools. Since Note (1) of Rule 5 of the Revised Rules lays down that a pass in the Training Examinations will be a preferential qualification in respect of all Tutorial appointments in the Educational institutions the above

(2) yes. There will be no need for these G.O's as separate special provisions as they are incorporated under

III Re Exemptions allowed

(1) G.O. No. 4587-8 | C.R.13 7-25-4 of 23.2.1926 authorises the appointing officers to appoint qualified candidates of Backward Communities in Vacancies in Middle Girls' Schools without advertisement and to furnish a report to the C.R.13. × y

(Or separate lists of Backward Communities candidates for Girls' Schools would be prepared, the same purpose would be achieved and this G.O. would be unnecessary) d

(2) G.O. No. 454-55 | C.R.13 1-28-3 of 14.7.1928 directs the appointment of qualified Adikarnataka candidates in Vacancies in Adikarnataka Schools without advertisement, intimation of the fact being sent to the C.R.13. (Vide also General Secretary's orders of 2.10.1924 that this order may be reiterated). × E × g

Under the Revised Rules of Recruitment selections of candidates for appointments in Vacancies in the above educational institutions have to be made

By the Board, after obtaining forecasts of Vacancies and advertisement in the Gazette. It is for orders if the special provisions contained in the above orders of 23. 2. 1926 and 14. 7. 1928 may be considered to be in force even after the introduction of the Revised Rules or to have been superseded by the same Revised Rules

In View of the change in the general mode of recruitment to these posts, with regard to approved lists (under the new Rules), these Special provisions do not seem to be necessary any more. N × G.

(3) G. O. No. 13730 × 31/Edn/3 dated 10. 12. 1932 directs that the Vacancies of Primary School Masters in the Kolar Dist. may be filled up with the best qualified candidates belonging to that Dist. only. Under the Revised Rules of Recruitment, there seems to be no such restriction and in preparing the lists of approved candidates to be assigned to the several units, the Govt will have due regard to the principle of providing for the adequate representation of all castes and communities in the public Service. In the circumstances it is for orders, if the above special provision relating to Kolar Dist. may be considered to have been superseded by the Revised Rules.

(In preparing the assignment lists, this would be kept in view, & reference may be made to the Govt. This G.O. is a separate standing provision & need not be referred to any more) R of 3. 1. 1933 directs that the tutorial appointments in the Village Panchayat Schools in Mysore be exempted from the operation of the recruitment rules, subject to certain conditions. It is for orders, if this special order may remain unaltered under the Revised Rules. (This Spl. order may remain unaltered) x

(5) (i) G. O. No. 3278-87/ CR13 × 14-30-1 of 15. 1. 1931 × H directs that at the time of readvertising a special vacancy in the Department of Public Instruction which could not be filled up for want of applicants after the first advertisement, the said vacancy might be shown as one open to all classes with the remark that preference would be given to candidates of Backward Communities possessing the prescribed qualifications commencement of the next school year.

The Revised Rules do not contemplate the readvertisement of vacancies but applications for appointments of the kind referred to above have to be called for only once in the month of April every year on the receipt of forecasts of vacancies likely to occur in the several limits during the following official year. There may be some appointments in the Education Department falling under Note to Rule 15 of the Revised Rules and hence requiring to be advertised individually as heretofore. The procedure of readvertisement referred to in the above Special orders may be necessary in such cases and has accordingly to be restricted to such appointments.

(subd.) [illegible] 5.11.31

Vide my marginal notes in respect of each special case. The D.P.I. may instruct [illegible] 13/11

These Spl. provisions for readv. would not generally arise now under New Rules, in respect of appts. for which there would be no adv. and approved lists. But, in respect of appts. which might or would have to be advertised, these provisions might apply as before
